GPO Servers Provided Public Access to Supreme Court Opinions in Florida Election Case

GPO provided the servers and bandwidth to cope with the U. S. Supreme Court's release of its opinion in the case of George W. Bush v. Palm Beach County Canvassing Board in December 2000. GPO hosts the Supreme Court Web site and had prepared in advance for an unusual load by increasing the number of servers containing the Court's Web site and using load-balancing equipment to assure that all servers were used as efficiently as possible. At the time of the release at 11:55 a.m. on December 4, GPO had dedicated 14 servers to the Court's Web site.

Traffic on the Court's Web site began to increase almost as soon as the Florida Supreme Court issued its opinion in Palm Beach County Canvassing Board v. Harris on November 21. In the days leading up to the release of the opinion, the Court posted a collection of 43 petitions, briefs, and oral arguments related to the case on its Web site. For the period November 21 to December 5, the Court's Web site received 4,346,687 page views, approximately double the normal volume for a two-week period.

Later, in the hours just before and after the U.S. Supreme Court's historic opinion in the case of George W. Bush, et al., Petitioners v. Albert Gore, Jr., et al. (No. 00-949) on December 12, the Court's Web site was hit for a total of 1.1 million page views. GPO replicated the Court's Web pages on a total of 19 servers in anticipation of the opinion's release. The 65-page opinion, which included all dissents, was presented as a 330 KB Acrobat Portable Document Format (PDF) file. When displayed in an Acrobat Reader, the opinion appeared as an exact facsimile of the original printed slip opinion.

Traffic on the site began to increase sharply at 4:00 p.m. and peaked in the minutes just after the opinion's release at about 10:00 p.m., totaling 1.1 million page views by 7:30 a.m. the next day. Between November 21, the day before the election case reached the Supreme Court for the first time, and December 13, the day after the final opinion, the Court's Web site had 6.4 million page views. During a normal month, the Court's site handles roughly 1.5 million page views.
